

The Tipping Point - Where Are We?

December 1st
9:00 am EST

Join us Thursday, December 1st, at 9:00 am EST for our latest webinar. Hosted by Amazon Conservation and the World Bank's Amazon Sustainable Landscapes (ASL) initiative, this free webinar will focus on the Tipping Point, using reports #144 and #164 of our Monitoring of the Andean Amazon Project (MAAP), and will highlight what the tipping point means for the forest, its inhabitants, and the planet.

SPEAKERS

Ana María González Velosa
Senior Environmental Specialist
World Bank

Carlos Nobre
Co-Chair
Science Panel for the Amazon

Matt Finer
Director of MAAP
Amazon Conservation

Carlos Ardila Espinosa
Chamber of Representatives
Congress of Colombia

Ketty Marcelo
President
National Organization of Andean
and Amazonian Women of Peru

Manuel Pulgar-Vidal
Global Leader of Energy and Climate
WWF International